How SIB Deals With a Complaint

This section documents how SIB staff will handle any complaints received.

If Staff Receive a Complaint

SIB’s complaints policy is set out above – “How to Complain to SIB” on page 1. Complainants are encouraged to complain directly to the Chief Executive. However, if someone complains to you, either verbally or in writing you should do the following.

• Acknowledge the complaint and refer the complainant to the complaints process set-out on the SIB website.
• If the complaint is verbal (e.g. in a telephone conversation or at a face-to-face meeting) ask the person whether they wish to make a formal complaint. If they do, ask them either to put their complaint in writing (using the process set-out on the SIB website) or offer to record their complaint in writing for them.
• Immediately pass any complaint to the Chief Executive, who is responsible for handling all complaints to SIB. (Note the tight time scales for SIB responding to complaints).

If Staff are Asked to Deal with or Respond to a Complaint

SIB is committed to dealing with complaints promptly and satisfactorily and it respects the standards for handling complaints set out by the Northern Ireland Public Services Ombudsman. These standards aim to provide consistency in approach to, and accountability for, complaint handling across Government.

In dealing with complaints SIB intends its process to be:

• Accessible and simple;
• Fair and impartial;
• Timely, effective and consistent;
• Accountable; and
• Delivering continuous improvement.

The Chief Executive will coordinate and deal with all complaints to SIB. However, you may be asked to help. For example:

• If the complaint is against you, you may be asked for your side of the story.
• You may be asked to carry out an investigation on behalf of the Chief Executive.
• You may be asked to correct the problem that was complained about; or at least say how it will be dealt with.

In all cases staff should follow the principles set out above.

Response Times

• SIB will acknowledge receipt of a complaint within two working days.
• Normally SIB will issue a full response within ten working days.
• If there is a delay in responding we must keep the complainant informed of our progress.
Reporting to SIB Audit Committee
The Chief Executive will inform Audit Committee (normally through the quarterly governance statement) about any complaint handled under this policy.
